REV. JAMES A. GRIFFIN, C.M.F.

This year, we, the staff of the Profile '63, wish to show our appreciation to a most dedicated and persevering man. We dedicate this edition of the Profile to Reverend James A. Griffin, C.M.F., Prefect of the seminarians in the upper division. At the same time that we thank him for his many efforts and years in guiding the seminarians spiritually, we wish that God multiply abundantly his years in the religious ministry so that many more may come to know his gentle and understanding heart.

St. Anthony Claret

Heeding a call of a priestly vocation, Anthony entered the Seminary in Vich, and on June 13th, 1835, was raised to the Holy Priesthood. He founded the Claretian Congregation on July 16, 1849. He was beatified on February 25th, 1934, by Pope Pius XI, who said, "Blessed Claret was indeed a great figure, a tireless apostle, moreover, a great organizer and a great precursor of Catholic Action." Blessed Claret was solemnly raised to the altars of the Catholic Church and proclaimed Saint by Pope Pius XII on the 7th of May, 1950.

Pope John XXIII

THE POPE OF THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL

In late afternoon of a cold and rainy Nov. 25, 1881 a son was born that very day to Marianna Mazzola Roncalli, in the province of Bergamo. No one imagined that child would one day become pope John XXIII. We will remember the Pope's warm and uninhibited personality which expresses itself in many ways but we also will long cherish with joy the Holy Father's bold venture of the ecumenical council which he launched in simple confidence shortly after he became Pope. We multiply our prayers for the early and successful completion of the Second Vatican Council.

Fr. Superior

My dear Graduates,

The new votive Mass for the Grace of Perseverance in the Priestly Vocation has this beautiful prayer for the Secret of the Mass which we offer for all of you: "Look down, we beg You, Lord, on the prayers and gifts which Your people are offering to You that the number of Your priests may be increased and that they may persevere to the end in Your love."

In the Claretian Junior Seminary you have laid the foundations for your priestly and religious vocation. The wish and prayer of all who have your well being at heart is that you "may persevere to the end in your love of Christ."

You shall attain your goal if you have a spirit of sacrifice and a true filial confidence in our Blessed Mother.
